

Roosterfish (Nematistius pectoralis) Recovery GFR1147 “KJ Super Bird”

- Fish Name: KJ Super Bird
- The roosterfish was caught and tagged by Mark Aronson aboard the Zancudo Lodge 8 with Captain Rafael Lopez near Matapalo Rock just off the west coast of Costa Rica on Feb. 7th, 2015.
- The roosterfish was measured at 47 in. and approximately 45 lbs. when tagged. After being released, the fish was at large for 47 days, during which it grew 1 in. and gained 7 lbs. in weight.
- The roosterfish was recaptured 30 miles away by Charlie Ayres aboard the Typhoon I, from The Zancudo Lodge, with Capt. Donald Mcguinness on Mar. 26th, 2015.
- New Fish Name: Cornelius

Roosterfish (Nematistius pectoralis) recaptured off the coast of Costa Rica.

The roosterfish (Tag ID: GFR1466) was originally caught and tagged by Mark Aronson aboard the Zancudo Lodge 8 with Captain Rafael Lopez near Matapalo Rock just off the west coast of Costa Rica on Feb. 7th, 2015.

The roosterfish was measured at 47 in. and approximately 45 lbs. when tagged. After being released, the fish was at large for 47 days, during which it grew 1 in. and gained 7 lbs. in weight.

The roosterfish was recaptured 30 miles away by Charlie Ayres aboard the Typhoon I, from The Zancudo Lodge, with Capt. Donald Mcguinness on Mar. 26th, 2015.

Thank you to our sponsors: #zancudolodge, #AFTCO, #FECOP, #AmericanFishingWire, #Lossuenosresort, #crocodilebay, #blackfinrods, #moldcraft, #marinapezvelacr, #shadowgraphics, #crprimofishingtackle, #AAVide